

Empowering teen girls to be Leaders
of today and tomorrow

A Project Soar Girl in Morocco is...

- On average 15 years old with 3 siblings.
- Living in an underserved part of a city, town or rural area.
- Living in poverty. (According to World Bank, the poverty headcount ratio in Morocco is $1.90 pp a day + the PS girl is living on less than $1/day.<sup>1</sup>)
- Has a father who is most likely a day laborer or farmer who makes about $165/month<sup>2</sup> ($5.5/day).
- Has a mother who is almost always a housewife.
- Has a father who has a middle school education or less<sup>3</sup> (23% are illiterate + 37% only have some primary schooling).
- Has a mother who most likely has a primary school education or less<sup>4</sup> (42% are illiterate + 39% only have some primary schooling).

Data collected from 733 Project Soar girls in 2019 across Project Soar locations in Morocco.

<sup>1</sup> Based on a family of 6: Father, mother + 4 children, mother who does not work and father who earns approximately $165/month.

<sup>2</sup> Based on an 80 mad/day estimate (between agricultural and non-agricultural day laborer) Based on an estimate of 20 days/month of day labor work.

<sup>3</sup> Approximately 75% of fathers have a middle school education or less.

<sup>4</sup> Approximately 85% of mothers have a middle school education or less.

94.5% PS Girls go on to higher education

vs. 51.4% of all girls nationwide

95% PS Girls pass the Baccalaureate

vs. 54.4% of all girls nationwide

90% PS Girls pass the High School entry exam

vs. 67.9% of all students nationwide

1.4% PS Girls marry underage

91.95% lower than national child marriage average of 16%

PROJECT SOAR
Morocco

Empowering teen girls to be Leaders
of today and tomorrow

A Project Soar Girl in Uganda is...

- On average 14 years old with 3 siblings.
- Living in an underserved part of a city, town or rural area.
- Living in low income (According to World Bank, the poverty headcount ratio in Uganda is $1.90 pp a day + the PS girl is living on less than $1/day.<sup>1</sup>)
- Has a father who is most likely in business or the service industry who makes about $165/month ($5.5/day).
- Has a mother who is most likely in business who makes about $300/month ($15/day).

Data collected from 129 Project Soar girls in 2020 across Project Soar locations in Uganda.

<sup>1</sup> Based on a family of 6: Father, mother + 4 children, mother who does not work and father who earns approximately $165/month.

<sup>2</sup> Based on an 80 mad/day estimate (between agricultural and non-agricultural day laborer) Based on an estimate of 20 days/month of day labor work.

<sup>3</sup> Based on an estimate of 20 working days/month.

0% of PS Girls married underage

vs. national average of 40% girl child marriages nationwide

100% PS Girls stayed in school

vs. national dropout rate of 43%

"I really love how I feel after every workshop. I feel so much energy and it started right from the first day Project Soar was introduced to us. I never want to forget this day because I received a group of people to transform my life"

-Patricia Nabulya,
14 years old, Uganda

PROJECT SOAR HEADQUARTERS, MARAKECH, MOROCCO
GIVEBACK@PROJECTSOAR.ORG

PROJECT SOAR

Uganda